Ohio Mutual Continues Positive Ratings Streak with A.M. Best

BUCYRUS, OH – Insurance rating organization A.M. Best has issued its annual rating of Ohio Mutual’s financial strength, reaffirming its issuer credit rating (ICR) of “a+”, as well as the company’s financial strength rating (FSR) of “A” (Excellent) for the 26th consecutive year.

The ratings include the three companies that represent Ohio Mutual’s intercompany pool: Ohio-domiciled Ohio Mutual Insurance Company, its wholly owned subsidiary United Ohio Insurance Company, and Maine-domiciled Casco Indemnity Company.

In its rating rationale, A.M. Best cited Ohio Mutual’s strong balance sheet, favorable operating performance over the past five years, a diversified book of business (geographic and business lines), its long-standing agency relationships, and its formal enterprise risk management program. Summarizing its outlook for the company, A.M. Best stated, “The stable outlooks are reflective of the strongest level of risk-adjusted capitalization and strong operating performance.”

“This reaffirmation from A.M. Best is an indication of Ohio Mutual’s continued financial strength and operational excellence,” said the company’s President & CEO Mark C. Russell. “While a streak of more than a quarter century of excellent ratings is deeply gratifying, our team is focused on continuous improvement to better serve our policyholders. We recognize this ongoing success as a collective effort by our agent partners, business partners, associates, and policyholders.”
