Clare Krumlauf Joins Ohio Mutual as Casualty Claims and Litigation AVP

BUCYRUS, OH – Ohio Mutual Insurance Group has named Clare Krumlauf to the position of Assistant Vice President of Casualty Claims and Litigation.

“Clare will be a tremendous asset to our company, as she brings a vast amount of experience to this position,” said Mark C. Russell, Ohio Mutual President and CEO. “Clare’s industry knowledge and legal acumen will not only enhance the strength of our Claims department, but her collaborative style and dedication to exceptional customer experience makes her a great fit for our corporate culture.”

Krumlauf joins Ohio Mutual with more than two decades of experience at Nationwide Insurance, during which she worked predominantly in the Claims department and the Office of the General Counsel, serving various roles including Senior Casualty Field Claims Representative, Commercial Claims Specialist, and Claims Trial Attorney. Most recently, Krumlauf was an Assistant General Counsel working with P&C Legal: Product, Pricing and Underwriting.

Krumlauf earned a Bachelor of Psychology from Miami University in Ohio, achieved her J.D. from the Cleveland-Marshall College of Law, and is certified as a Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter (CPCU).

As the AVP of Casualty Claims and Litigation, Clare’s role will be to lead and manage the Casualty and Litigation teams, while reporting to Vice President of Claims John DeLucia.

Ohio Mutual Insurance Group, founded in 1901 and based in Bucyrus, OH, partners with nearly 400 independent agencies to distribute quality property and casualty insurance products throughout Connecticut, Indiana, Maine, New Hampshire, Ohio, Rhode Island, and Vermont. Ohio Mutual has maintained a rating of “A / Stable” from A.M. Best Co. for 26 consecutive years. Additional company information is available at www.omig.com.
